D.O.A.--bloodied but unbowed

this is an artifact of hardcore history but doesn't excite me because when i got into hardcore it was after the peak of this band so it sounds generic to me but they were one of the major influences of today's hardcore scene or actually one of the bands to define it. Worth it if you don't have anything to listen to by them. CD records 1230 grant ave suite 511 S.F. CA 94132

Blasting Concept-V/A

this is a compilation of past releases on SST. If you don't have all of the past releases from them then this is worth getting. it's a full length lp and they're selling it for $3 or 4, i'm not sure. black flag - my war quite frankly i don't like this that much its just a disappointment. first off it misses the rough bass sound of cluck and sounds toooo slick/production wise. Nothing really stands out. Maybe the other 2 releases they're doing this year will be better SST records p.o.b one laundale ca 90260

DEMOCRACY??

Last Sunday, in El Salvador, more than 70 percent of the people voted in the midst of a war, some at risk of their lives. SENATOR DAVID BOREN CONSERVATIVE DEMOCRAT
NOTE: 30% DEFIED THE GOVT AND DID NOT VOTE.

Voting was mandatory. Any person, age 18 or older, who failed to vote faced a fine of as much as $20 -- no little sum in a country where the average annual income is about $478. Moreover, failing to vote held the possibility of consequences beyond that fine. Salvadoran citizens must carry identity papers. The papers of those voting were stamped, thus marking those who did not vote Sunday. Failing to vote meant that everytime security forces inspect the unstamped identity papers, everytime employment is sought, that failure would be noted.

The gorers were cool as shit. fast rough teen punk. Brown 25 was cool with vetrans bill and kent from no direction. their first real rig. They'll probably become great with practice. Defenestration was good. Their singer was dressed in semi drag for the occasion. im not saying anything about diet of worms becuz j.son will get rissed. N.O.T.A. finally got some new songs. great as usual. DRI was tight and intense as could be imagined. They blocked their songs together in Husker Du ultra core style. My fav song was who am I? D.R.I

why couldn't black flag play on a weekend? sorry to those people who couldn't stay late enough, you could of got your money partially funded if you would of asked. nig-heisst and the meat puppets didn't make it due to fucked up vans and black flag was late for the same reason. we played and ~~xxxxx~~ we did all right we had alot of people watching but a few who cared. Where in the fuck are you people for White Cross? Crucifix? Mortal Micronatz Lots of these bands are just as good as Black Flag or better and demand less of a guarantee. after us sore drunk stupid guys used our equipment (why, i don't know) and did a drunken version of wild thing. the lips played on short notice as a filler band. they were allright but werent prepared. Brown 25 played on short notice and borrowed equipment. loose but memorable. Rusty showed his dick for a buck. Its real small and has green pus dripping out of it. after an hour of bullshitting and sitting around, Black Flag shows up at midnight. They start a quarter to one. those kids who werent brave enough to face parents got fucked over. Black flag ~~xxxxx~~ plays an ~~xxxxx~~ slightly dissappointing set, mostly stuff off the new LP, nothing off Damaged but they played jealous again and another song i cant think of at the moment off of older stuff. As a last note i want to say a big fuck you to the jock in the green shirt cuz youre an asshole pushing people around and shit, stick to def leppard and a big fuck you to those people who fucked with the indian lady, cuz she has just as much of a right to enjoy black flag as you do. There is rules for keeping people off the stage at loyd noble and the myriad. you act like those concert security guards. im real tired like shit cuz i got home at 2:15 last night and i feel like a sack of shit --so have pity.

this tape is a nice compilation of this bands material. Rattus can go from thrash to powerful raw sounds, from funny punk to some really good political songs. it comes with some of the lyrics translated, a great help to us who cant speak Finnish and give a fuck about what someone else is trying to say. lity of having a free ride to juvenile detention several people did come and showed the cops that they would have to fuck with a few people. i just want to demonstrate the point that we must unite against authority and running away in fear is exactly what they want you to do. your words mean absolutely nothing when your actions prove different.

J-Pat of the GOMERS

here is a through the mail interview with J-pat of the Gomers. He has been through some shit with his parents. They will have a tape out soon.

WHY DID YOUR PARENTS FREAK OUT? my mom went to the show and didn't like the slamming or the "look" of some of the people. my parents told me this was building up but they never told me about it. the one im really pissed off at is my dad. he didnt and still doesnt know anything about me or punk. he has judged me and my friends without knowing any of us. he is an asshole

WHAT STEPS HAVE THEY TAKEN TO REPROGRAM YOU? - it started with the burning of all albums, t-shirts, shoes and boots magazines and songs. actually anything considered punk. they took my phone out and hang upon anyone e that calls my house. they also let me drive very little. they really cleaned me out.

J.PAT CASEY
3140 E. 47th St
Tulsa, OK 74105

IS THIS GOING TO EFFECT YOUR ATTITUDE? - it has in the point that i resist them more and wish they would die. i still believe in what i did before and im writing more songs.

ARE YOU GOING TO CONFORM? - NO

TELL OUR READERS ABOUT THE FORMATION OF THE GOMERS - it all started when alphie, alan, and i wanted to form a band, this fell through when alan couldnt afford a guitar and alphie formed "on edge". alphie gave me davids number and he was interested. now all we needed was a drummer. i talked to sean at school and he wanted to try it. so, we all got together at my house and worked out "day of". from there on it was about a month or two before our first show in norman in february (D.R.I.) the band started in january and the original lineup ended after the march 4 show at gestalt.

WHY DID THE DRUMMER QUIT? - this was quite a surprise to me but mark was happy as they didnt get along. sean said he quit because HE DIDNT LIKE THE LOWLIFES WE PLAYED FOR! what an asshole. we now have a new drummer, darren, and are starting to work again. the present line-up is me on vocals, david on guitar, mark on bass and vocals, and darren on drums. hopefully we can all be productive for a good summer scene.

ANY POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY? - as a band we have no one philosophy. but i believe in anarchy though i think it would be very hard to make it work with all the greedy capitalist assholes in this country.

ARE YOU STRAIT EDGE? - i do drink occasionally and get drunk because i didnt see nothing wrong with this. i am very anti-drug because it really fucked me up for a while and i have seen it fuck up peoples minds too much.

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE COLOR? - this is a stupid question. plaid.

Corporations in El Salvador

The following is a list of the multinational corporations from the United States whose interests the Reagan Administration is defending in El Salvador. "Many of these companies operate in "free trade zones" where they pay no taxes and make huge profits off the labor of workers in El Salvador. The average minimum wage for unionized workers in El Salvador is $2.50 a day. However, most unions in El Salvador have been dissolved by the military dictatorship. Some corporations, like Texas Instruments, have closed shops in the U.S. and opened new ones in El Salvador. This both increases the unemployment rate for American workers as well as increasing the profit rate for the big, multi-national, American workers and Salvadoran workers are both losers in this scheme.
